

Jayne Banful

Jayne Banful is an Associate Pastor of Praise Chapel in North West London

Jayne gave her life to Christ in her teens and later moved to London to pursue her desire to become a fashion journalist. She went on to study Business Administration, while also attending Bible School. She completed her course and left with a degree in Fashion Journalism, however God called her out and into full time ministry alongside her husband Kofi.

Jayne is a Life Coach and Certified Christian Counsellor, she currently leads the Family Development Centre which offers a confidential Christian Counselling service. Her desire is to see broken people healed and restored. Her ministry can be described as “one sent to bring healing to the broken-hearted and to set the captives free”. She uses her personal experiences of how God has set her free from deep emotional wounds to illustrate her teaching.

Alongside this Jayne has a heart for young people and is the Youth Pastor of Praise Chapel. Jayne desires for young people to stay focused on the Lord and find their hope and their calling in Him. Jayne has a passion for seeing young people fulfil their God-given destiny and believes God has called her to empower the next generation by sharing and passing on Biblical truth.

Jayne is a devoted wife and mother of two children, Siobhan and Sinead and she lives with her family in London, England.
